Creating a Culture of Peace

AVP Advanced Workshop

Sponsored by the North Carolina Alternatives to Violence Project in partnership with the NC Peace Resource Center

What? Discover new ways to reduce conflict in your world. Enjoy a hands-on, fun, activity-based experience in an intensive weekend workshop. Note-taking is unnecessary! People who've taken the training report they have connected deeply with others, laughed, shared, listened. They've experienced increased trust and self-esteem and learned ways to reduce conflict in their world—whether classroom, family, work, or community.
(Prerequisite: Completion of Basic Workshop)

What will we explore? We'll be learning more about anger, empathy, and forgiveness.

Where? Friendship Friends Meeting, 1103 New Garden Road, 27410

When? Friday, March 27, 2026, 6:30pm to 8:30pm
Saturday, March 28, 2026, 9:00am to 6:00pm
Sunday, March 29, 2026, 1:00pm to 6:00pm

How much? No fee. Snacks and lunch will be served, so we are grateful for your donations.

RESERVE NOW, SPACE IS LIMITED!
[We will keep a waiting list for future workshops]

Please register no later than March 1, 2026, by emailing Kathy Adams at kfadams53@gmail.com

Remember . . . Peace begins with you!

Workshop facilitators are volunteers. Do not stay away due to the registration fee; scholarships are available.

Who is AVP for? It is a program for everybody. Though founded by Quakers based on their belief in an inborn power for peace in everyone, it draws its participants and its trainers from all religions, races and walks of life.

Can I earn Continuing Education Credits? Curriculum materials and documentation of your participation can be provided. You will need to seek approval for the credits with your organization.

Can I participate in just a portion of the weekend training? Participants are asked to make a commitment to be present for the entire training.
